

MEDIA RELEASE

CLUB YOUTH GAMES NEWEST MEMBER!

The city's largest job network provider has stepped onto the Badminton court to show Bendigo they are the newest Gold member of Club Youth Games.

CVGT has joined the Official Business Supporters Club for the 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games and looks forward to seeing over 1000 participants compete in Bendigo in November this year.

Paul Green, CEO of CVGT, said his organisation really values what the Games will bring to Bendigo and our youth.

"Twenty-one years ago, CVGT began with the primary charter of helping young people find their role within the community. Today, with over 200 staff, we are still assisting young people find their identity along with providing many more support services."

"When the opportunity arose to be involved with the Games, I saw this as an essential part of our continued commitment to the youth of Bendigo," said Mr Green.

Michelle Pryde, Director for the 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games, said the support from CVGT was wonderful.

"We are excited that a significant community organisation such as CVGT has come on board as a Gold club member. This is a fantastic boost to our role in delivering a successful Games."

"With only one week to go until our first official function with Club Youth Games, there is still an opportunity for businesses to join the club and make a difference," said Ms Pryde.

If your business would like to join Club Youth Games contact Delwyn Douglass from the 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games on 0428 370 044.

Photo opportunity at 4pm, Tuesday 24 August at the Badminton & Table Tennis Stadium, Victoria Street, Eaglehawk.

Further enquires: Delwyn Douglass, 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games. Ph: 0428 370 044

