

MEDIA RELEASE

A CREATIVE DESIRE TO PERFORM!

Bendigo's largest accounting firm believes it has the rhythmic and artistic flair to be Gold winners in this year's 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games!

Mulqueen Griffin Rogers have joined as Gold members of Club Youth Games, the Official Business Supporters Club for the Games and hopes Gymnasts visiting Bendigo in November are just as enthusiastic as they are.

Peter Mulqueen, Partner at Mulqueen Griffin Rogers, said when they heard about how significant the 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games was going to be for Bendigo, they didn't hesitate to get involved.

"There will be ten Games sports competing in Bendigo attracting over one thousand of the best young athletes from the Commonwealth. We saw the immense value this will bring our city and wanted to ensure we play a significant role in it."

Peter said, "Having been committed to assisting the community for many years, our firm saw Club Youth Games as the ideal opportunity to contribute to the Games as well as enjoy great rewards ourselves."

Michelle Pryde, Director for the 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games, said the support from Mulqueen Griffin Rogers has been fantastic.

"Businesses like Mulqueen Griffin Rogers are wonderful corporate citizens. They identify what's really important to the city and ensure their staff get right behind it."

"Club Youth Games is an affordable way in which Bendigo businesses can support youth participation and help Bendigo put on an outstanding Games."

If your business would like to join Club Youth Games as a Bronze, Silver or Gold member contact Delwyn Douglass from the 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games on 0428 370 044.

Photo opportunity at 3pm, Wednesday 21 July at the Gymnastics Centre, 155 McCrae Street.

Further enquires: Delwyn Douglass, 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games. Ph: 0428 370 044

