

MEDIA RELEASE

NEW GAMES MEMBER TAKES TO THE RING

Bendigo boxing enthusiasts will be treated to an exciting display of boxing competition at this year's Commonwealth Youth Games. Young elite boxers from across the Commonwealth will compete at the Bendigo Schweppes Centre.

Directors and Staff of successful local business, McCormick Harris Insurance Brokers, have thrown their support behind Bendigo and the Games by becoming the newest member of Club Youth Games.

Jumping into the ring with Cr. Alan Besley, and former Commonwealth Games medallist Lynden Hosking, Mr McCormick said his business was excited to be involved with the Games and looks forward to taking a keen interest in the sporting competition.

As Managing Director of McCormick Harris Insurance Brokers, Mr McCormick says he believes the Games are a great coup for the city and will benefit both the business and wider community. Mr McCormick hopes that by joining as a Gold member of the Official Business Supporters Club his business will provide valuable assistance to the 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games.

Mr McCormick said, "The Games is a wonderful opportunity to showcase Bendigo to the many visitors that will flock to the city from around Victoria, interstate and from overseas."

Cr Alan Besley Chairman of the Organising Committee for the 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games said he was thrilled to see McCormick Harris Insurance Brokers join the team.

"McCormick Harris Insurance Brokers have shown what we hoped many local businesses would show, tremendous support for our city's role in hosting this major Commonwealth event."

If your business would like to join Club Youth Games contact Delwyn Douglass from the 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games on 0428 370 044.

Photo opportunity at 11am, Tuesday 27 July at Scott Hosking's Boxing Gym, Hargreaves Street (next to Premix King)

Further enquires: Delwyn Douglass, 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games. Ph: 0428 370 044

