ARTISTIC DIRECTOR APPOINTED FOR YOUTH GAMES

Bendigo is set to celebrate the 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games in superb style with the announcement that K L Events Management will be responsible for the delivery of the Opening and Closing Ceremonies for the Games on November 30 and December 4 respectively.

Director of the 2004 Commonwealth Youth Games Michelle Pryde said Bendigo will experience international sporting competition complimented by outstanding festivities from two quality Ceremony presentations.

“Bendigo will enjoy a memorable and professional Opening Ceremony including entertainment, official parade of athletics and team officials and cultural celebrations at the Tom Flood Oval.”

“The Closing Ceremony will farewell our visitors and highlight the achievements of the Games. The one-hour celebration at the Schweppes Stadium includes an Official closing and hand over to the host nation for the 2008 Commonwealth Youth Games as well fantastic entertainment.”

“This will be an exciting opportunity for the community to witness a high calibre event in regional Victoria,” said Michelle.

K L Events Management, who will be responsible for creating, rehearsing and coordinating the Ceremonies, brings extensive creative experience in producing, directing and staging events.

Events Director for K L Events Management, Kylie Wood said this will be an excellent occasion for all involved.

“The Commonwealth Youth Games is a great platform for Bendigo to be the place where dreams of young people are achieved. We will endeavour to highlight Bendigo’s rich and colourful culture and the participation of youth during the Opening and Closing ceremonies,” Ms Wood said.

Based in Melbourne the company, comprising of Kylie Wood (Events Director), Roman Berry (Artistic Director) and Jeff Williams (Technical Director), will spend time in Bendigo working alongside community groups to ensure Bendigo plays an integral role in the celebrations.
